

NATIONAL TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

We are excited to share that we are bringing our Intensive trainings connecting artists to community to Denver, St. Louis & Lincoln this fall. Whether you're an artist working in community who wants to deepen your practice, or a community development professional who is looking for new authentic ways to address community challenges, we have upcoming trainings for you.

October 16-18 Community Development Practitioner Training in Denver, CO

November 6-8 Community Development Practitioner Training in St. Louis, MO

November 13-15 Artists Working in Community Training in Lincoln, NE

Scholarships are available, scholarship deadline is September 6.

National training opportunities are made possible in part through the generous support of the Bush Foundation, Surdna Foundation, and the National Endowment for the Arts.
